
CRIMTECH SERVICES LTD. COMMITMENT TO WORKPLACE SAFETY EARNS WCB REBATE

Red Deer, Alberta, (April 29, 2009) – Crimtech Services Ltd. (“Crimtech”) announces today that it has received a WCB rebate. Crimtech Services Ltd. has worked diligently over the past years to prevent their employees from being injured on the job. With their due diligence and strong safety program Crimtech Services Ltd. has successfully managed to reduce the number of lost-time claims, receiving a WCB rebate of 18%.

Crimtech Services Ltd. is a part of a highly safety conscious group and adhere to the Alberta safety standards. They have earned and maintained a Certificate of Recognition (COR) and continually make safety a priority in the workplace.

About Crimtech:

Crimtech Services Ltd. provides engineering & drafting services and manufactured products for the petroleum industry. Our Engineering & Drafting department offers a complete line of mechanical, electrical, instrumentation and structural designs for small to medium-sized capital field projects. Crimtech’s Products department specializes in oil and gas production equipment, from small portable separator packages to full sized conventional separators or custom designs. Skilled at analyzing and solving problems, Crimtech’s team provides practical solutions for production or operational problems. For more information please visit www.crimtech.com.